

Overview

Kathmandu Chitwan Pokhara Tour is the perfect itinerary for a first approach of Nepal and the discovery of the most iconic sites in the country and cities. You arrive in Kathmandu where you will discover a city teeming with life, you have to squeeze through taxis and motorcycles. We explore the old town and the Durbar Square where you will see many temples. Do not miss the Maju Deval temple and its coveted markets that offer the best view of all the action space.

The next we visit Swayambhunath also known as the "Monkey Temple" have fun while watching monkeys do their antics. Continue with Pashupatinath, there is the largest Hindu temple of Nepal along the Bagmati River. Finally, finish with stupa Boudhanath and being part of the biggest in the world. Many Tibetan exiles have decided to move to Boudhanath, so it is common to see Tibetan monks in the streets.

On day 3rd we drive to the Chitwan National Park (private vehicle). There you go live great experiences: a ride on an elephant through the park and a canoe trip on the Rapti River where you can see crocodiles (among others). Along the way you will stop at Cheres to take a dizzying cable car taking you up and Manakamana temple while offering stunning views.

We continue our journey by private vehicle with your local guide to Pokhara after Chitwan. Pokhara is the next step from there you can see the peaks of the Himalayas. In Pokhara, you will be able to take a little boat ride on Lake Phewa Tal and admiring the falls Devi. You can also take a short hike to Sarangkot (1592m), nice view from which 17 are visible peaks including two of the highest peaks in the world: Dhaulagiris (8167m) and Annapurna (8091m).

Back in Kathmandu after taking a domestic flight trip to discover on foot Bhaktapur, a city both medieval and modern. We continue drive to Nagarkot hill for Himalayas views. Early sunrise view at Nagarkot (2175M) is the most fascinating and mesmerizing view.

Then take the road towards Patan, separated from Kathmandu the Bagmati River town, also known as Lalitpur. Then you will do a walk through the courtyards and alleys of the old city. When you return to Kathmandu, you will stay in Hotel.
