

Overview

Kathmandu half day tour includes very important two Buddhist monuments of Kathmandu, namely Boudhanath & Swayambunath temples. Kathmandu is the center of the Buddhist culture and history and home to some of the most important Tibetans and Lamas. Exploring them with a member of the Guide Nepal Holidays team will help you to understand Buddhist culture, Patrice and way of living. Visit the beautiful two big Buddhist stupas and monasteries of surrounding areas.

Our guide and car driver will pick up you from your hotel in the morning after your breakfast and then take you the two different sites. Kathmandu half day tour duration will be about 4 hours. Morning you will travel up the swayambunath hill to see the views of Kathmandu valley and surrounding areas. You will spend about an hour there. After that, head back down the hill with your guide in a vehicle for a tour of boudhanath stupa, a palace is located about 11 km (6.8 mi) from the center and northeastern outskirts of city. In the afternoon, spend 2-hours exploring the monasteries, biggest stupas and surrounding areas of Boudhanath. In the late afternoon, return to yours hotel.

Itinerary Details